Dear Diary,

Sorry I didn't stop by yesterday. Busy doing stuff. But I've been working it out. I've been here 749 years and 204 days now. Impressive, right? Well, I'm not sure. I'm bored of it all. Seeing new faces getting to know them then just like that I can't see them again. They die. I can't make friends, get a girlfriend. All this normal stuff a kid like me can't do.

As a kid I thought stopping growing would be awesome, you know? Lunchtime football forever. Nowadays my hometown doesn't even exist. Didn't like that place anyway. I was always the outcast. Especially when I stopped growing. The only bit I liked was that one record store in town. I only enjoyed music. That was it; my headphones were my tardis and I was doctor who. But like a really bad one that fought against his dad, not space boxy things. (I never really watched doctor who) I believe the shop was owned by a lady called kim? But now it's gone. Like most things. And I can't visit back. I'm a disappointed tourist. I can't go visit the places we all want to. Like a kid who didn't get their sprinkles on their ice cream. Just a bit pissed off. Anyway, that's the past and I've told you before I don't do the past. It's a blurry mess. Too many people and stuff. All the tests, they were the worst. I get it, big deal I feel no pain, can't grow old and die. But death is natural, so I'm the odd one out. They'll look at me, one kid and envy, while I'm jealous of them all. I miss being normal. No one wants to be different till they are really different. I never thought I was ready to be different. My dad never treated me particularly special and my mum obviously wasn't there. The only time he seemed to like me was when making the chilli for tea. I still remember that recipe, but I couldn't eat it anymore. Look at me straying from the topic now. Always happens when I talk to you, maybe you're listening. Hard to tell with you. You know I avoid conversation because no one understands. But I feel right, if you were like a person you would also be a good talker. We could put on Radiohead and talk about space and stuff. I saw this girl today, she was dressed really nicely but whenever I talk to people I can't get past the fact only one of us will grow older. I sometimes wonder if I'll be the last here. That would be right bad. Just me. Well me and you. It would be like one of those stories but I'm kinda like one of those stories, but just a bit of a sad, not very good one. Anyway, I'm kinda done here. As much as I hate to say it, I'll see you tomorrow. It's awful waking up every morning knowing it's gonna be the same forever. Literally. Anyways night then, tomorrow it is.

Mental health is a topic that doesn't get talked about enough. People forget how common it is in society. So talk to your friends, ask them how they are, and if they aren't ok, talk to them. No one deserves to feel down, so don't let anyone.

The TEN whys

why must
I be judged
on who I
love.

why must
where I'm born
determine my
life.

why must
what you think
be what I am.

why must
the amount within
my pocket set my
worth in society.

why must
my skin say
who I play
with.

why must
my wealth
justify my
health.

why must
what job I
do be determined
by what lies between
my legs.

why must
my beliefs allow
you to lock
me up.

why must
my voice be the reason you
persecute me.

Why, why, why
do these things
still exist for
those who want
answers I'm sorry
to say I don't have. For all the
whys of the world
must be solved
by you.

P.A

I'm a plant,
A new species of a plant for I'm not ment to be born here. I'm ment to be born where bees buzz and where the sun shine's. Though here I'm in the arctic freezing to death with meating ice clashing and floating in the middle of nowhere. Did u the present have to make such choics. Did u the present have to cutt down trees. Did u the present have to make us in bo a candring cycle. I want to rescue my kind before it is late. I need to though my shyress and lack of seeing others like me has made me like this.

Though you the present may I ask where the bees are where are the others like me where is my home.

What is social anxiety?

Social anxiety is the fear of being judge in social situations. It is not the fear of being in public places (Agoraphobia).

It's invisible
disability

TEANNA
CHAMBERS

From opposite sides of Europe they sit in front of their screen listening to the sweet sounds of music rushing through their ears. Nothing matters right now cause every beat of the song brings them closer together.

They may have had a terrible day at school or a boring day at home but they both know they have something to look forward to at the end of the day, the sound of music & memories

The impact of music is amazing. Bringing people together all over the world.

someone
with an invisible

Not all disabilities are visible. This girl has an invisible disability... but just because its invisible doesn't mean its less valid.
