

Purpose of non-formal learning

Enjoyment and enrichment, to strengthen those who are more able and help the underachieving pupils to catch up

To raise attainment significantly across the school and to broaden the options for achievement

To continually improve learning and teaching across the school and to enhance the value given to education in the community

Participants

The pupils are willing young people, with some targeting of those who are at risk of underachieving