Friendship

Friendship is strong it can grow long, it can be short because of something gone wrong, don't be selfish be kind you will always make the sunshine, that one person special to you, and will stay strong because of you!

We need many different colours because colours make our art and the world more exciting. A picture with ~~one~~ only one colour wouldn't be very attractive and wouldn't look as nice as it could.

What are FROG'S?

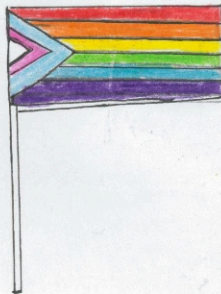

Frogs are the best animal on earth and that's a fact they're cute, green, and slimy, and I love them! They should be pets! They live in jungles or even London. But my favorite type of frog is a tree frog. Frogs live in wet or hot weather (mainly wet.)

Achieve

Whatever your dream is always believe Whatever it is
You can achieve.

When things are hard,
Always try your best,
Even in the hardest challenges and tests.
If you can't achieve,
Don't get too sad,
Or you'll feel anger,
And you might go bad.
You can do anything,
Just like a magical wand,
Or you can grow,
Like a tadpole in a pond.

FREDDIE COLLIS

Bullied, Discriminated, Racism... All of these led to Frederick Mohammed becoming the person he is today. Depressed, Mad, Conflicted. He roams the streets of London waiting for a child to walk up to him. That is when he pounces. He talks to them and tells them to tell him what their name is, where they live and how long they will be out of their house <sup>per</sup> so that he can spy on it and maybe steal some stuff as that is his only way of him living. As he starts to walk back home he is stopped by a woman who doesn't <sup>know</sup> her way back to her house. So he sees his opportunity and desperately asks where her house is, tells her the wrong directions and quickly runs towards where her house is. He had now been running for about half an hour and after a bit he realized that she had had just like he had. Tears dropping from his eyes, he slowly strolled home. And when he got home he looked at the time: 11:30 pm. He sat on the floor, curled up into a ball and just cried and cried. What was the point? He just couldn't handle it anymore. He couldn't handle all the hate. STOP Racism! We are all equal!

FJC

We need many different colours because otherwise everything would look the same. The different colours make other colours and without them there would only be the primary main colours. No ~~deffer~~ differentiation or inspiration. Just red, yellow and blue. No green grass or orange fire. No Gandalf the Grey in his wizard's spire.

Courage and Perspective

There's nowhere to go,
But I can't stay here,
So what do I know.

All I can feel is fear,
There's a solution somewhere here,
But I don't know.

There's a different angle to look at this,
A different perspective, another way,
But how do I know.

Every body <sup>being</sup> disabled isn't a disability it's a different ability, they may not be as good at what you can do, but that's the same with every body.

At one day, Naruto Uzumaki was waiting down the street, ~~the~~ every one hated him he was bullied and laughed at all the time, he was a trouble maker, but he liked it, his dad had died just when he was born he never knew how or why, but he did his mum had also died in the same way.

Naruto trained ~~at~~ at the academy to become strong but he couldn't, he acted so nappy but he wasn't...

So he stole the scroll, the scroll had all the hidden powers and Naruto wanted to learn it but a Genin stopped him he tried stealing the scroll from Naruto and would blame it on him but Naruto had all ready learned one... So the Genin told Naruto everything, a Beast called the 9 tails lived inside

There once was a mermaid who was never accepted.

So one day, she decided to leave. She transformed into a human, - like all mermaids did, but as she was different, it didn't work as planned.

But even above the water, she wasn't accepted.

She decided she was going to prove her worth by saving the king and queen. After all now her martial arts holds would be useful.

One day, on the news.....

She fought her way into the castle and stole a key to the dungeon. She unlocked the cell containing the king and queen.

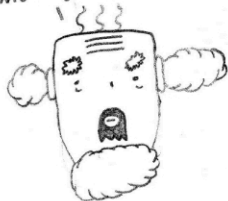

Delighted, the king and queen knighted Sam and everyone accepted her for who she was, even the mermaids.

Lucas Layton — Matthews

Hi my name is Russ its spelt like that but its pronounced Roofus (my owner cant spell), any way this is about my owners the mental but now its pronounced the mental oh yeah forgot to mention this ummm im dead in the family dead pet anyway lets start with John...

He is a mentally unstable assassin he spent 20 years banking down Donald TRUMP and right when he was about to well you know he realised it was a typo so he spent another 10 in Jail and by then he was mentally unstable. Now for

Susan she used to act marge
 Simpson she is an ex-marge simpson.

This is her now...

she got cut by homer then got sired because of the scar. Now for Jack...

He got poisoned by some kind of wasp that nobody heard of with permanent affects and he went mad, and this is me, currently.

I was run over by a car.

Right, it all started when I was a pup and in a shop and then I saw him... John.

Then he took me home to his wife and baby life was perfect until...

there was none I got ran over, John started being an assassin and then started drinking Susan got Sired and the baby got poisoned and thats how they ended up here.

ROCKET MAN

A Robotic stereotype

A Robot's Journey

many days in the future...

A Baby Boy was abandoned by both his parents because he wasn't fully formed...

So they left him in a orphanage.

They planned to kill him the man left him out in a door in a sack

and one day while he was there a man with the strength of one thousand men broke through the wall to break him out

But they were not there to help him they were there to hurt him because he was a droid.

Stereotype

WE ARE ALL
STRONG
ON THE INSIDE

We need many different colours because ...

If the world was black and white the sight wouldn't be so bright we would miss the colours of the plants
And our palets would be empty

WE WOULD HAVE
Dull colours

AND say NO TO bright

THERE WOULD BE NO
PURPLE, NO GREEN OR ORANGE! Just black and white different colours

Because...

Otherwise it's boring

Some colours make people happy.

No beautiful views.

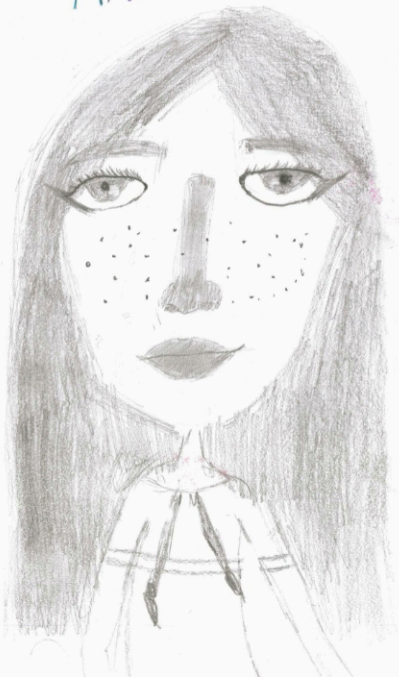

Everything will be black and white

There would be no "what's your favourite colour?" as a question

What would the world be like in colouring in?

If you use your imagination, you can create...

ANYTHING!

Why we need many different colors!

We need loads of colours so that we have variety.

Colors also make things pop. ~~more~~

Colors make things exciting and colorful.

Colors are also needed for other things too!

Colors are used for hair, dyeing and more.

Colors need to join together for a picture.

DOLLS

by Rebecca GRUNHUT

OBJECTIVE (your belief)

On the outside, there's me.
I believe in everything I tell myself.

GLOBAL EDUCATION (unlearning stereotypes)

Then, there's me, who needs to rethink their opinion.

DISCRIMINATION (not including)

Deeper down, there's me:
Who treats everyone who is long lost and gone.

TOLERANCE (understanding, patience)

Then, there is me, who is hollow and wise.

And I guess that's the REAL ME!!!

There's a history that might turn out to be the wrong
one.
Remember when this was the only way to think
